The Clerk briefed the meeting on the process of licence applications in Wilts Council, the key points of the Gem Festival licence application, some clarifications after the confusion caused by having 2 festivals on the same weekend in Charlton Park in June of the current year, and some ways in which Gem Festival hoped to lessen their impact next year. This was followed by discussion, including some concern expressed about music continuing after midnight, after which the PC decision was to object to the application because of the noise nuisance that resulted from this type of festival for young people, but to withdraw this objection if the application were amended to a one-year application with a 1am music end-time. Action: Clerk
